MMED SUPERVISION

Mmed Supervisors: The University expects the department to keep track of all its Mmed students. In addition to the annual request by the University for Progress Reports, it is important that the department has more frequent records of the student's research project. Supervisors are to ensure that copies of the student-supervisor agreement are given to Ayanda in the department. They must also submit copies of the supervisor meeting forum. The relevant documents are available on the department's website.
