BIOSTATS CONSULTATIONS UPDATE/REQUIREMENT FOR COMPLETION OF ONLINE UKZN BIOSTATS MODULE

A reminder that we have launched a new online booking system for biostatistics consultations for the staff and students in the College of Health Sciences (via this link: <http://my.setmore.com/bookingpage/f3d-bcb01-8d3d-4a3f-880a-0029c5273367>). Note appointments can only be made via the online booking system and not directly with the consultants to avoid any issues/double bookings. 1 hour slots available Mon-Friday 9am-5pm, with a maximum of one slot per individual per week. Please include a short description of the purpose/requirements of the meeting in the booking form (under “Comments”). Please also note that the venue for meetings for each staff member under their respective profiles. We are now placing the condition that PG students wishing to make an appointment for a biostatistics consultation must have completed the first of the online biostats modules via UKZN learn (Introductory Biostatistics), Part I: <http://learn.ukzn.ac.za/course/view.php?id=45356>). Please note this is now a requirement as of the second semester of 2016 as alluded to in multiple previous earlier this year. Supervisors: Please make sure your students are aware of this. This course is free and self-enroll able. We would also recommend that staff members who have not yet done so also complete these online biostats modules as part of a broader biostats capacity development initiative.
